

UND School of Engineering and Mines

ACADEMY

Thomas M. Hamilton

Born: June 28, 1943, Greenfield, OH

Education: UND MS Geology 1967

Ph.D Geology 1971

Career Experience

1970-82 Exploration & Research Management,
Exxon Corp.

1982-85 EVP of Exploration & Land, Aminoil Co.

1985-87 SVP of Exploration, Standard Oil Co./BP

1988-91 CEO of International Expl. & Prod., BP

1991-97 President of Pennzoil Exploration &
Production Company

1997-02 Chairman, President & CEO of EEX Corp.

2001- Board of Directors, FMC Technologies, Inc.

2003- Founder and co-owner of Medora
Investments, LLC

Accomplishments

Held major leadership roles in U.S. & International Oil Industry

CEO of EEX Corporation

UND Alumni Association and Foundation Boards

President of UND Foundation, 2002-2003

President of Texas National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, 1998-2001

Advocate for the Disadvantaged

Awards

1993 Honorary Degree, UND

1998 Capital University Distinguished Alumni Award

1999 William B. Heroy Award for Distinguished Service,
American Geologic Institute

Chairman Emeritus, Advisory Board of the Earth
Sciences and Resources Institute at the University of South Carolina

