

UND College of Engineering and Mines
ACADEMY

Scott Boe

Born: February 19, 1960, Fargo, North Dakota, USA
Education: University of North Dakota, BSEE, 1983, Cum Laude

Career Experience

1983-1993 Engineering Manager, Hughes Aircraft Company,
Missile Systems Group
1993-1995 Management Consultant, Gemini Management
Consulting Company
1995-2000 Vice President of National Operations, COMSYS
Technical Solutions
2000-Present Co-Owner, Chief Development Officer, Boecore, Inc.

Recognitions & Accomplishments

1981-1983 UND Baseball
1983 UND Male Honor Athlete of the Year
1986 Hughes Missile Systems “Superior Performance Award”, AMRAAM Program
2000 Co-Founder of Boecore, Inc.
2005-2013 Boecore received Northrop Grumman Top Supplier Awards
2008 Boecore received a Nunn-Perry award from the Office of the Secretary of Defense and was the first Nunn-Perry award winner for the Missile Defense Agency

Volunteer Service/Interests

UND CEM Executive Advisory Board
Established the “Persistence Pays Off” Endowment for UND SEECs Students Significant supporter for the new Griggs County, ND Hospital & Nursing Home and the Cooperstown, ND Community Foundation Habitat for Humanity Corporate Sponsor
Major donor to the Pikes Peak United Way; the Colorado Springs Family Success Center; the University of Colorado Springs Cybersecurity Center; and funded a “Tiny Home” for homeless young adults in Colorado Springs

