

UND College of Engineering and Mines

ACADEMY

Charles S. Vein, P.E.

Born: November 6, 1954

Hometown: Grand Forks, ND

Education: University of North Dakota, BSCE 1976

Career Experience

1976-1991 KBM, Inc., Grand Forks, ND
Engineer

1991 – Present Advanced Engineering and Environmental Services, Inc. (AE2S),
Grand Forks, ND
Co-Founder and President

Accomplishments

- Co-Founded Advanced Engineering and Environmental Services, Inc. (AE2S), 1991
- Specialized Experience in Water Supply, Treatment, and Distribution for Municipal, Rural and Regional Water Systems
- 1997 City of Grand Forks Flood Response and Reconstruction
- UND Athletics High Performance Center Arena Layout

Awards

1997 United States Environmental Protection Agency, Environmental Achievement Award

2006 American Water Works Association, Water For People, Kenneth J. Miller Founder's Award

2007 American Water Works Association, George Warren Fuller Award

2013 North Dakota Water Users Association, Water Wheel Award

Professional and Volunteer Activity

American Water Works Association, Board of Directors, Finance Committee

North Dakota Section AWWA, Trustee, Chair, Water Utility Council Chair

North Dakota Section AWWA, Water for People Committee, Founding Member, Chair

North Dakota Water Users Association, Executive Committee

UND Civil Engineering Department, Advisory Board

UND Men's Track and Field Committee, Charter Member

Education endowments/scholarships established at UND

Grand Forks Public Schools Foundation, AE2S Good Samaritan Fund, Advisor

Vessel Christian Foundation, Grand Forks, ND, Founding Member, Chair

Emmaus Bible College, Dubuque, IA, Advisory Council

